FACTS AND OBSERVATIONS

ON A TRIP TO BOURBON COUNTY.

West of Little Rock, 1 mile, we saw an attractive farm and home, and wished to know who lived there. When we reached the gate we knew for there was his name, "B. F. Hopkins." Seldom we see on the gates the names of the owner. We suggest to all farmers that they put their names on the road gates unless you are a farmer who lets things go loose, gates broken, fence down, mowing machines exposed to snow and rain, farming utensils hanging on trees and subscription for your paper not paid.

We had not seen our friend Lewis Rogers for a long time, so we drove into his spacious yard where workmen were cutting down an oak tree. He insisted that we have a lunch-dinner was over—and we yielded. The lunch was tempting and appreciated.

His wife was Miss Iva, daughter of Mr. Julian Allen, banker, of Millersburg. Their two sons, Harry Allen and Julian G., are five and three years old. Harry thinks he will be a farmer but Julian is still undecided. They are fine little fellows and we wish them success.

BLUE GRASS CROP.

This crop is fine in Bourbon. Current price 40c, special sale 45c. We were now in the vicinity of large farms, from 200 to 2500 acres.

For a few a few moments we rested in the shade on the verandah of Mr. Warren Rogers' home. His wife was Miss Fannie Fitch well known in our city.

The hospitable home of Will Young was our abode for the night—a charming place for one who has been in the sun and dust all day. We met Mrs. Skinner who will in September succeed Prof. Thomson at the College. Her plans are not yet formulated. We will later have something to say regarding her work.

On Saturday we finished our pleasures in business and conversation in town.

JAMES S. MOORE.

We stopped for a few minutes to see our aged and venerable friend James S. Moore. As we go through the country we take time, now and then, to drop in for a few minutes, exchange greetings, endeavor to give or receive a little sunshine and cheerfulness, and then are gone. He is able to walk around, and the pained limb, the feeble step and the form bending under the frailness of four score and one years indicate that his course is about finished and soon the glories of the heavenly world will burst upon his vision. With satisfaction he contemplates the reward for his long service and awaits the Father's will. He has never used a profane word, entered a saloon, been on a race course and does not know the cards in a deck. How we wish that the young men of the country would have and heed these words.

Sad, sad indeed, it is to see the wreck and ruin wrought by sin upon the boys, and shall we say some of the girls in the social features so popular. Again we must advise, entreat, implore the young people in town and country to guard well their ways.

Mr. Moore has reared a large family, of whom three sons, Sherman, Allie and Clarence, are preachers. His son Allie R., who is pastor of the Christian Church at Memphis, Tenn., is visiting in Bourbon and will remain three weeks. We regretted that he was not at home when we called. He preached at North Middletown the 15th.

SIDE VIEW.

Pendleton Trimble, who has been clerking for his brother, is sick and has been taken to his father's at Camargo.

Misses Bernice Scott and Katie

McCarthy, of Lexington, have been visiting Mrs. B. F. Mark.

The intended Democratic precinct convention for Saturday was not held as the farmers did not come out.

We paid our respects to the merchants of the town and to Lewis Price the smith and wood workman.

On Thursday night the family of Douday Gay, near Sideview, was awakened by the burning of his meat house. An incendiary did the work and had evidently robbed the house. The loss includes 30 gallons of lard and 14 pieces of meat. The lumber room was also burned.

We reached home at six o'clock.

FACTS AND OBSERVATIONS

At Torrent, Ridgewood and the Regions Beyond.

Returning from a pleasant trip to Bourbon county the writer reached home at 6 o'clock on Saturday afternoon. Monday is presided. By 11:50 at night our press stopped, and the weekly issue of nearly 1900 copies of the Mt. Sterling Advocate was practically finished and much of it delivered at the Post Office, ready for the early trains on the C. & O. and K. & S. A.

On Tuesday afternoon at 4:47 the train stopped at Torrent, and as the writer stepped off he received a greeting from sister, niece and father—Misses Ella Trimble, Mary Tibbs and J. G. Trimble.

The man who has no music in his soul—whose heart is not touched by the concord of sweetest sounds is fit for treason, strategy and spoils and deserves not to be classed among men. This may be strongly put, but, the thought is suggested as the sweet strains of skillful musicians impress visitors as they enter spacious and cheery verandahs and halls at L. Park Hotel.

Whether in quest of business or pleasure, there comes a sense of relief, a pleasing and joyous emotion; a disposition to "trip the light fantastic toe" or something of that kind, or perhaps, a serious, thoughtful frame of mind which lifts one heavenward as the visitor realizes that he is once more favored by being at Torrent.

After supper we three went to the Chalybeate Spring about one mile away.

On Wednesday morning the writer and W. T. Colvin, salesman for Trimble Bros., were called for five o'clock breakfast. At 6 o'clock we were at Rosewood Junction ready for the trip over the narrow gauge railroad to Rosewood. The road was seven miles long, has 26 trestles and is over a picturesque route, both up and down the grade. The longest trestle is over 500 feet long and has an average height of 69 feet. The average grade of this road is 5 1/2 degrees. If we remember aright the maximum is about 12 1/2.

We were to take a bird's eye view of the enterprise carried on by Fell & Stiles, both at the Junction and Ridgewood.

The principle state factory including large drying kilns are at the Junction, where is also the company stores. Here forty men are employed.

We had the pleasure of our first meeting with Mr. W. J. Fell, who is so extensively interested in the state industry in Kentucky, West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

Mr. Stiles is the junior member of the firm. He is general manager of everything—stores, stave mills, factory and road—connected with this plant. On June 21st he was married to Miss Bertha Coy, of Ohio. The marriage took place at Ridgewood Junction at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. E. Belford.

We had also previously met Mr.

No other aid so great to the housewife, no other agent so useful and certain in making delicious, pure and wholesome foods, has ever been devised.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

There are imitation baking powders, sold cheap, by many grocers. They are made from alum, a poisonous drug, which renders the food injurious to health.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 100 WILLIAM ST., NEW YORK.

T. B. Staggs. He is Superintendent of both stores, at terminus of road, and is book-keeper. He is a native of Lewis county and is 23 years of age. For two years he was book-keeper for W. J. Fell at Salt Lick. He married Miss Myrtle, daughter of R. B. Dickerson, of Salt Lick. He came to this section about Jan. 1st, when this plant began operation.

Executive ability and hustle are essential for the carrying on of such an enterprise. The plant consists of a lumber mill, two stave mills, where the staves are sawed in the rough, and the factory at the Junction. Employment is now given to about 300 men. The daily output at Ridgewood is about 11,000 staves. The cylindrical knife, which gives the curved shape, makes 1800 revolutions per minute. We met W. E. Belford, a native of Ohio, who is foreman of the plant at this junction; also R. L. Porter, Master Mechanic and Engineer.

Dr. W. L. Banfield looks after the sick and those injured connected with the works. He is a native of Boyd county. For 6 years he lived at Morehead, where he married the daughter of Judge James E. Clark. In 1834 he graduated at the E. M. Institute at Cincinnati and in 1900 at the Medical Dept. of Vanderbilt. He located at Ridgewood in May.

His salary is paid by the assessment plan—each married man paying monthly $1 and the unmarried 50 cents. Recently one of the employees had a 21 day siege of fever. His doctor bill was $1. There were most of the 300 who paid their 50c and $1 and received no treatment; but like the thousands of men who get caught in lotteries and wheat and real estate speculations, we hear but little of them.

At present D. C. Hall, of Powell, is in charge of the black-smith shop. We interviewed Sherman Robbins, of Donnelly, who is a merchant on Miller's Creek, nearby. He handles general merchandise, live stock and some lumber. Has been in business 10 years and has two stores. He is a Republican and is Deputy County Clerk of Estill county.

Another merchant whom we saw for a few seconds was Mr. Smyth. The day was hot. In company with Mr. Colvin we went to the cave without our coats. A heavy rain fell while we were away. When Trimble returned he found that his coat which he left hanging in the store had been appropriated during the storm and was too wet to wear; so he went to dinner without his coat—something which never occurs at home.

We forgave the stranger this time, but threaten him with a write-up if this occurs again.

We expect to come again and will get other items.

New Red Cross Standard.

As there has been firing at ambulance trains and hospitals in South Africa it is suggested that a red cross standard be adopted by the nations that will prevent such mistakes in the future.

From any or every point round the wagon or tent bearing such a standard one red cross would always be visible. If pivoted on a central shaft, the triangular would, by force of the wind, present a sharp edge to the wind, and this would not take a tug that a flag of ad q at -12- would do.

Further, in night excursions during an armistice, a light might be carried inside the frame with advantage. The frame could be simply constructed to fold up or collapse round the shaft, so as to make it conveniently portable.

Cured Bronchial Trouble.

Chas. E. Davis, 1071 W. Congress St., Chicago, says: "I suffered for years with bronchial trouble and tried many kinds of medicines without relief, until I began taking Foley's Honey and Tar, which cured me." Take no substitute.

At Hawserville Allen and Frank Pulliam fought Jack Hason. Hason was killed instantly and three hours after the fight Allen Pulliam died from the effects of a wound received.

HOW TO DRESS PROPERLY.

It is Easy for Women to do this if the Proprietaries are Observed.

For a ball the essential quality of a gown is its freshness. The only difference between the dress at a ball and an informal dance is in the degree of elegance.

For large dinners women reserve their finest gowns. They are subject to closer inspection and risk no deficiencies as at dances.

Gloves are removed at table and resumed in drawing room or not, as one pleases.

Dainty, diaphanous materials are most becoming to young faces.

Young girls make a distinction in their dress for little dinners by wearing lace or chiffon sleeves with their low-necked gowns.

A hostess shows good taste in dressing somewhat more simply than her guests.

It is a reversal of the proprieties when a mother dresses her daughters in a more expensive style than herself.

In the street elaborate dressing is in bad taste.

For church a woman's dress, while suitable to her station, should be so inconspicuous as to prove no distraction to her fellow-worshippers, and never suggest even by its tastefulness that it has occupied her thoughts overmuch.

A woman's appearance must suggest that quality expressed in the slang of the day as "well grounded."

For driving and coaching we now imitate the good sense and practical utility of English women's dress. No gauze parasols, no dainty furbelows, but garments that fear neither sun, rain or dust.—July Ladies' Home Journal.

The Open Saloon.

The question of the open saloons in our State is weighing upon the minds and hearts of the people as never before. How to close them is the burning question. The method chosen by the Church people is by a vote of the citizens by counties. To accomplish this we must have a law authorizing such a vote. Then the law must be enforced when adopted. To this end this Committee was organized and has been actively at work now about 18 months. The progress made has been remarkable. The question is now before the people. Ministers and churches are aroused. They played an important part in the last campaign for the election of the Legislature. A safe working majority in both Houses were pledged to the passage of our bill. If an extra session is called, the Governor will be petitioned to mention the amendment to the Local Option Law as one of the questions for consideration.

Shall this work go forward or shall it cease? Dr. Young is the moving power and it will go forward if he is kept in the field and other expenses are met. He has the confidence of the people. He is in constant demand to instruct and stir up the masses to a full sense of their duty. Party leaders recognize his power. He cannot remain in the field without a support. Our resources are failing for want of systematic organization. The Committee have undertaken to manage this part of the work that Dr. Young may remain constantly upon the platform.

The expenditure of a little more time and money, a vigorous appeal for a higher type of Christian citizenship and the victory is ours. Kentucky politics will be free from saloon domination.

For the Committee,
J. J. RECKER, Treas.

NERVES DESTROYED BY CATARRH.

Mr. Robert B. Mantell, the Great Romantic Actor.

Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio:
Dear Sir—The bottle of Peruna at hand. It is splendid and most invigorating; refreshing to the nerves and brain. It is one of the best tonics I have ever used. It makes me feel like a new man. Yours sincerely, R. B. Mantell.
Catarrh is one of the ways in which a depressed condition of the nervous system shows itself. Catarrh people are soon made nervous. Any remedy to effect a radical cure of chronic catarrh must operate directly through the nerves, invigorating the mucous circulation.

Prof. Warfield at National Educational Association.

Supt. W. C. Warfield returned Sunday from Charleston, S. C., where he attended the meeting of the National Educational Association. Mr. Warfield was a member of the Cincinnati Committee that went to Charleston to secure the N. E. A. for Cincinnati in 1901. The Committee believes that it was successful in its efforts, the final decision being reserved until October, at which time the Executive Committee of the N. E. A. will visit Cincinnati.

Mr. Warfield also delivered an address before the Department of Elementary Education Thursday afternoon, July 12. Subject: "Nature Study in the Primary Grades," a synopsis of which appears in the Charleston News and Courier of July 13.

Mr. Warfield said in part:
"The children should be taken into the field almost as soon as they enter the school room. All the year round nature has her story to tell without the walls of the school room. It may not be possible to do this in mid-winter, but I have often found the days of the snow to contain most valuable and interesting lessons for the child. The child has a natural inclination toward those things that are about him. The child can be taught a due appreciation of the beautiful by the simple things of everyday life."

The ethical side of the child is quickened by its views of nature. Every tree means its lesson, every bird sings its song. The brook itself murmurs its story and the rocks have a silent narrative within their hardness.

The physical part of the child is developed by its views of nature. Every tree means its lesson, every bird sings its song. The brook itself murmurs its story and the rocks have a silent narrative within their hardness.

What It Should Have Been.

"We congratulate," says the Republican platform, "the Republican party on the efforts made by Gov. Taylor and his co-officials to secure their hold on the offices at Frankfort. Was it only a desire for brevity which prevented the platform-makers from specifying what these 'efforts made by Gov. Taylor and his co-officials' were? The meaning would have been made much plainer by being expressed in this way:

We congratulate the Republican party

(1) On the employment of illegally organized militia, under the personal command of Gov. Bradley, to control the election in Louisville.

(2) On the use in mountain counties of illegal disease ballots.

(3) On the assembling at Frankfort of an army of "regular mountain feudists" to intimidate the Election Commissioners and Legislature.

(4) On the pardons by Gov. Taylor to mountain braves in advance of trial.

(5) On the murder on ambush of William Goebel.

(6) On the attempt of Taylor, without warrant of law, to adjourn the Legislature to a mountain fastness.

(7) On the attempt of Taylor to profit by the murder of Goebel by preventing the assembling of the Legislature by force of arms.

(8) On the threats to assassinate the temporary prohibition of business.

(9) On the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus and the imprisonment in a military guard house of an officer serving a court summons.

(10) On the attempt to protect accused murderers from arrest and contrivance at their escape.

THE NEW YORK WORLD.

THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION.

Almost A Daily—At the Price of a Weekly.

The most widely circulated "weekly" newspaper in America is the Thrice-A-Week edition of the New York World, and with the Presidential campaign now at hand you can not do without it. Here are some of the reasons why it is the leader in dollar a year journal.

It is issued every other day, and is to all purposes a daily.

Every week each subscriber receives 18 pages and often during the "busy" season 24 pages each week.

The price is only $1.00 per year. It is virtually a daily at the price of a weekly.

Its news covers every known part of the world. No weekly newspaper could stand alone and furnish such service.

The Thrice-A-Week World has at its disposal all of the resources of the greatest newspaper in existence—the wonder of modern journalism—"America's Greatest Newspaper," as it has been justly termed—The New York World.

Its political news is absolutely impartial. This fact will be of especial value in the Presidential campaign coming on.

The best of current fiction is found in its columns.

These are only some of the reasons. There are others. Read it and see them all.

We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE ADVOCATE together one year for $1.65.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.

There are no better pills made than Dr. Williams' Little Early Risers. Always prompt and certain.

Too much Pork: Not Enough Fat.

Without doubt the fat in pork is about as hard to digest as anything can be. A person has to have a strong digestion and must be engaged in hard work in order to take care of this food, although it is true a large number of persons depend upon it especially through the cold weather.

The fact is, however, that as a rule fat is largely deficient in our food; that is, a fat which can be easily digested and promptly assimilated by the system.

Cod liver oil, as we find it in Scott's Emulsion, is the most easily digested of all fats; it is just the food the body must have to give it nerve power, brain power and digestive power.

To Asthma Sufferers.

STARVED
Slow growth of hair comes from lack of hair food. The hair has no life. It is starved. It keeps coming out, gets thinner and thinner, bald spots appear, then actual baldness. The only good hair food you can buy—

AYER'S Hair Vigor
It feeds the roots, stops starvation, and the hair grows thick and long. It cures dandruff also. Keep a bottle of it on your dressing table. It always restores color to faded or gray hair. Mind, we say "always."

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.
"I have found your Hair Vigor to be the best remedy I have ever used for the hair. It has made my hair falling out very bad, and I thought I would try a bottle of it. I have used only one bottle, and my hair is now growing thick and long, and I feel much better and younger."
—NANCY A. BROWN, Jonesboro, N.Y.

Write the Doctor.
He will send you his book "The Hair and Scalp," and tell you why you wish such a product. Write to Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass.

Read This at Your Dinner Table.
"The Indian Witness" says: "The pressure of famine in Western India and in some parts of the central provinces is becoming more acutely felt with each passing week. Pathetic appeals for assistance are reaching us from missionaries. A few contributions, we are glad to say, have come to hand for distribution to those who are fighting starvation and death in behalf of the hungry multitudes. Apart from those to whom relief works are inaccessible, there are many infirm persons and helpless children who must inevitably perish unless private charity soon reaches them. I grieve to think of our hungry fellow-Christians, for whom other religiousists will do nothing, seeing them so little for those of their own faith. We appeal on behalf of all these classes to the Christian public, trusting God will put it into the hearts of many to duty themselves, if necessary, that they may help to put bread in the mouths of famine-stricken and save many children from a cruel fate."

While you are enjoying your beautiful and bountiful repast there are multitudes of people in India who have barely enough food to keep soul and body together, while thousands on thousands are dying of starvation. Many of these are members of churches—our brothers and sisters in Christ. The missionaries ask us for help.

Having concluded the reading, take a family collection at the dinner table, and hand it to your pastor, that he may send it directly where it is needed. If pastors will call attention to the needs of these starving Christians from their pulpits, and exhort each family to take a dinner-table collection the same day, they will help to relieve a large amount of suffering.

The pastors of Mt. Sterling have made a united plea for the sufferers of India—and this plea has been published in all the papers. The banks have consented to act as treasurers of the fund. If a member of our families would act on the above suggestion the fund would be greatly increased. Suppose you try it?

The law holds both maker and circulator of a counterfeit equally guilty. The dealer who sells you a dangerous counterfeit of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve risks your life to make a little larger profit. You cannot trust him. DeWitt's is the only genuine and original Witch Hazel Salve, a well known cure for piles and all skin diseases. See that your dealer gives you DeWitt's Salve.

Legislation to Protect Birds.

The protection of birds is a national, not a local, question. It deals largely with migratory species which breed in one section, winter in another and traverse several states in passing to and from their breeding grounds. Legislation on this subject belongs primarily to the states, but it is to accomplish its purpose there must be greater harmony of action. With the exception of Alaska, every state and territory has its bird law, but Arizona, T. T. Idaho and N. M. protect only game, and Fla. only game and plume birds. In Canada, except P. E. I. and the northwest territories, similar laws exist. There are 125 species and subspecies of birds that inhabit America north of Mexico and of these only 18 per cent are game birds. Sportsmen class birds as game or non-game birds, but for legislative purposes they may be divided into three groups: (1) Species which may be protected at all times, known as song or insectivorous birds; (2) species which may be killed at certain seasons for food or sport, known as game birds; (3) species which are injurious and therefore excluded from protection, such as the English sparrow. A review of the protective legislation, together with the state laws now in force, has been prepared by T. S. Palmer of the U. S. biological survey, and recently published by the U. S. nept of agri.—American Agriculturist.

An Arcadian Villa.
The most gigantic and extensive amusement feature ever attempted in the State of Kentucky has been captioned, "The Arcadian Villa." It will contain more varied amusements, more high class artists and more novel up-to-date exhibitions than were ever amassed under one management. The most thrilling and sensational act now before the American public—The Spiral Tower, the king of high class wire artists; Ray Burton, the jolly, jovial, trolly carrio, Burgess, Rice and Saxton's Military Band have been employed by the Lexington Horse Show, Fair and Carnival to entertain the patrons of the Arcadian Villa, without extra cost.

Aside from these sensational and costly features, the Villa will include a Japanese theatre, dog and monkey theatre of 100 superb performers; a museum of wonders that will rival anything at the Paris Exposition; an American theatre, with a dozen separate and distinct features, each one a high class novelty; the congress of dancing girls, a bevy of feminine beauty, picked from the most celebrated artists; Edison's vitoscopes; children's theatre, with the Marionettes as leaders; a performing animal show—lions, tigers, dogs, goats, etc.; pack animals, elephants, camels and Egyptian donkeys—wild animal aggregation, street of all nations and a German village. Aug. 12 to 18. No ticket ever seen like it. Exursion rates on all railroads.

National tickets.
Nine national tickets, at least, are in the field. In addition to the democratic, republican, populist and prohibition tickets are these: Socialist labor, with Job Harriman of California nominated for president; and Max S. Hayes for vice president; social democratic, Eugene V. Debs and Job Harriman; De Leon socialist, Joseph P. Maloney of Massachusetts had Valentine Remond of Pennsylvania; ("Father and Endorser") Clark, and Rev. Charles M. Sheldon of Topeka; middle-of-the-road populist, Wharton Baker of Philadelphia and Ignatius Donnelly of Minnesota.

Men may differ on politics, religion or finance, but all who have tried Benger Salve are agreed as to its worth for cuts, burns, sores, piles and skin diseases. It's the most healing medicine in the world.

Sold by F. C. DEERSON, drugist.

Provide for Rainy Vacation Days.

In packing the trunk for the summer holiday do not forget that there will be rainy days when the children cannot go out of doors, and provide something for their amusement. Take some of the kindergarten occupations, colored papers for stringing, parquetry in which tablets of colored paper are laid in designs and then pasted on mounting cards; beads, and fine wire on which to string them, so that they can be shaped into baskets and various other objects. Sewing materials, knitting needles and worsted should not be forgotten. Painting and drawing books, a few games, some puzzles and story books, as well as book of natural history, will make the time pass pleasantly until the sun comes out again.—July Ladies' Home Journal.
